

Ayla came to me at 3 months old in March of 2004. My Niece was having a baby in Feb. of 2004. I loved the name Ayla from the movie Clan of a Cave Bear.

I wanted her to name her daughter Ayla. Feb. 4 she had her daughter and named her Nyla. 1 month later Ayla came from my daughter's friend, her name was Princess, and I changed it to Ayla. She's been my best friend since…I am 58 yrs. old now. My Grandson is 5 years old now, but when he was younger and taking naps in my room. Ayla would lay right out side the door. I knew when he was waking cuz Ayla would come to me and go back to the room. I get my walking exercise. We walk every night.

I am an ovarian cancer survivor, so I know My Ayla will too.
